Visiting Homemaker Home Health Aide Service Announces New Board Member

Visiting Homemaker Home Health Aide Service of Bergen County recently welcomed Marita Drivanos, BA, RN-C, SDLTC as a new Member of The Board of Trustees. Ms. Drivanos is the Staff Development Specialist/Clinical Educator at Christian Health Care Center in Wyckoff. She brings a wide range of expertise and professional nursing experience to the agency. Her extensive experience working in health care facilities will promote Visiting Homemaker Home Health Aide Service's high quality care at home for elderly and disabled people of all ages.

Visiting Homemaker is a nonprofit agency that, for almost sixty years, has been providing home care services so that people throughout Bergen County can remain living safely in the comfort and dignity of home. Visiting Homemaker helps individuals who are unable to care for themselves as well as families who are struggling to cope with illness at home. The agency provides individualized services including certified home health aides, shopping, errand and housekeeping services, help with hospital or post surgery discharge, help so that a disabled person can attend special family occasions, and other home care services.

For further information about Visiting Homemaker and any of its services, contact Renay Stafford, 201-488-0041, ext. 12, Stafford@vhsbc.com or visit www.vhsbc.com.
